“Good morning Commissioners,

I know you understand the importance of finding the right person for our District, but I would like to share a few thoughts. I hope you will select a new director who will be a great fit for our district. Classified employees as a whole have expressed our concern to find someone who will follow the laws, rules and regulations that have been put into place to protect all of us. However, we also want someone who understands how to effectively manage and motivate employees. Most importantly, we need someone who will be responsive to our concerns and advocate for classified interests within the district. We are putting our trust in you; no pressure! Thank you for your time.”
